KEENE AND REINHART WILL REACH SALEM FOR SUNDAY'S GAME

Ex-High School Twirler Will Be Welcome Addition to Pitching Staff

Boy Keene, the ex-Salem high school twirler who has been starring in college baseball in the east, will arrive in Salem Friday night with Bill Reinhart, who has also hammered out a nich in the hall of baseball in the collegiate circles. Both of these men will undoubtedly prove a good boost to the Salem stock. Reinhart has been playing first base with Keene on the mound and both have made an enviable record according to the press dispatches which have reached Salem from Missouri.

Manager Otto Klett is taking no chances on being short of pitchers for Sunday's game against the St. Helens team and Ade Sieberts, the O. A. C. moulman, will be on hand for the coming game. Cole will also be here and with Keene, Cole and Sieberts all ready and willing to shoot their shots it is a settled fact that the loss of one pitcher more or less will not handicap the team in the next game.

A double header was first announced but it was stated today that only one game would be played Sunday in the Inter-City league in Salem between St. Helens and the Lojus. The first game scheduled between St. Helens and Salem was postponed on account of wet grounds and tomorrow's game will be the first appearance of the St. Helens aggregation.

Refrigerating Plant at Slaughter House

Salem has the only plant in the Willamette valley in which the refrigerating rooms are part of the slaughtering plant. Until a few months ago, all cattle slaughtered for home consumption were killed, placed in screen rooms and later brought to the cooled rooms of the market in the city.

When the meat market owners of the city could not get together on building a $20,000 abattoir, on account of there being doubt as to whether the city would extend the sewer to the plants owned by Steusloff Bros, the proposition of bringing their slaughter house up to date was taken up by the firm.

In order to do this, the firm spent close to $6,000 in reconstructing their plant about two and a half miles southeast of the city through the installing of an automatic refrigerating machine that alone cost $2,000.

By the action of an automatic thermostat, the temperature of the first cooling room is maintained at from 40 to 35 degrees. When the temperature gets above zero the temperature required, the thermostat cuts off or increases the action of the electric machinery by which cold air is forced through the pipes of the cooling room.

A second cooling room is also used, in which the temperature is low, ranging from 35 to 34 degrees, and here again in this room the temperature is maintained at the exact degrees desired by the action of the automatic thermostat.

While the plant is not exactly in Salem, yet it is one of the many improvements that are being made indicating the progressive and up-to-date spirit of Salem business men.

INVENTS NEW BURNER

A distillate burner for Ford cars has been invented by Benjamin S. Via and patent applied for. This burner will do away with the use of gasoline, according to Mr. Via and thereby be of great saving to the fortunate owners of Ford cars. Distillate is a by-product of petroleum, and is extensively used by tractors and trucks. It is much more effective than gasoline and also much cheaper. Mr. Via feels that he has invented a burner that will prove a boon to Ford car owners, especially as the cost of the burner can be saved within a short time just in the difference in cost of distillate and gasoline. Viek Brothers will install the burners and give them a thorough tryout.

Yesterday's Results

At Portland 9, Oakland 8.
At San Francisco 1, Vernon 10.
At Los Angeles 3, Salt Lake 2.

Vernon unworked a flagon of the old pepper at Emeryville and singled the Seals 10 to 1.

Perritt and Obilham and nothing to offer which the Tigers couldn't claw, and that well known bengal, Mr. Arclanes, subdued S. P. with six hits.

The Angels bunched eight swats in two frames on Piercey and conquered Salt Lake.

Harstam of Los Angeles did some grand pitching at times, but his support was fast and he got by.

Harry Walter's single in the third scored two, and won the day.

Oakland has discovered a real hurler in Boyd, who has been hiding his light for some time. Boyd held Portland to a couple of safeties and won with good support, 8 to 0.

Two messy singles were all the Beavers could harvest, and one of them was so feeble Lonie Galisto was almost ashamed to take first on it.

Cleveland was the only place the rain didn't hit yesterday. Which, taken altogether, doesn't look so bad for B. R. Fan who enjoys a double header as well as the next.

Pretty tough for Charlie Comiskey at Chicago. Two big political conventions on and a million visitors in town and he can't show 'em what a fine game the White Sox play because it went stop raining long enough.

Masons Open Grand Lodge at Albany

Albany, Or., June 9.—With practically all of the 143 lodges in Oregon represented, the Masonic Grand Lodge of Oregon convened here yesterday in sixty-sixth annual convention. The convention will continue for three days. It is the first time in 42 years that the Grand Lodge of Oregon has met outside the city of Portland.

Practically 500 Masons are attending the gathering, for in addition to the accredited delegates, grand officers and past grand officers who are here, there are a large number of visitors. The sessions are being held in the Masonic Temple.

The Grand Lodge convened promptly at 10 o'clock in the forenoon. It was opened by Frank J. Miller, of Albany, most worshipful grand master, presiding.

Welcome Is Extended.

After the formal opening of the Grand Lodge session, the representatives of the sister jurisdictions were received by the Grand Lodge. George H. Burnett, of Salem, past grand master, responded on behalf of the representatives to the welcome extended by Grand Master Miller.

The remainder of the forenoon session was devoted to the address of Grand Master Miller. He reviewed the work of the grand lodge and subordinate lodges during the past year, and in eloquent language, which held the close attention of the grand lodge, paid tribute to various accomplishments of the fraternity. He also made many recommendations, which will be acted upon at this session.

At the opening of the afternoon session, Grand Master Miller introduced S. S. Spencer, of Eugene, newly-elected grand high priest of the grand chapter, Royal Arch Masons, and felicitations were exchanged.

Prelate Gets Ovation.

Grand Master Miller then had Grand Marshal Cochran present Rev. W. W. Youngson, pastor of the Rose City Park Methodist church, of Portland, who yesterday received a telegram announcing his appointment as most excellent prelate of the grand encampment, Knights Templar, of the United States. He received an ovation in recognition of the fact that this is the first time this appointment has been received by a minister residing west of the Rocky mountains.

It conveys added distinction at this time because of the fact that the coming encampment at Los Angeles will be the 100th anniversary of the establishment of the Knights Templar in the United States and Rev. Mr. Youngson will officiate at the centennial service on Sunday, June 18.

Business Is Taken Up.

The reports of the various grand officers were received and proposed legislation and resolutions were introduced and referred to committees. Petitions were received this afternoon for new lodges at Pilot Rock and Donald.

The only invitation thus far extended for next year's convention was presented by Roseburg. It was reported Portland, Salem and Eugene will extend invitations tomorrow. It was decided to refer all invitations to a special committee, and Grand Master Miller appointed W. O. Haines, of Portland; Lot L. Pearce, of Salem; W. H. Phasgen, of Grants Pass; W. T. Lamphie, of Ontario; Arthur Means, of Ematilla; H. G. Barnes, of Milton; and J. J. Brughart, of La Grande, on this committee.
